Preface

Some believe there is something called the bible code. Some believe the bible has advanced coding in it featuring future predictions and past events. Now, there is something just as strange and advanced. When my website was launched it provided the proof. It closed the case. What was once speculated has now been proven. The code was never meant to be found.

Chapter 1

The Cult

The slavery of the Jehovah's Witness cult schedule in order to "work out one's salvation" is the definition of tension. It is abnormal and sick to give a child two bimonthly magazines and have them learn that taking in knowledge is a requirement to everlasting life. One day while standing in a house I was in the process of throwing out Jehovah's Witness materials. I paused for a minute and decided to look at one of their books. Something was strange and it seemed as though time stopped and the book came alive and was looking at me. It was something that I cannot describe but I passed it off as an anomaly. I never knew this research would lead to a startling discovery as I went back to progress. I began to research the Jehovah's Witness cult because of the bizarre behavior of cult members that I have known. The cult teaches members to knock at people's doors with the magazines they produce. The Jehovah's Witnesses love with a passion the Watchtower magazine. The cult also publishes an Awake! magazine. I did not put the exclamation point there. The magazine is called Awake! A researcher I once listened to gave a lecture on mind control. He mentioned something to the effect that the mind control slave may not hear certain things you say when speaking. Recalling my experiences with Jehovah's Witnesses I have observed this. Once a Jehovah's Witness elder introduced me to an entrance of a library of watchtower books. It was located inside the cult's church. I mentioned my computer to him. His mind then turned off, he put his head down and appeared to go into a trance like state. He did not hear anything I said. His body froze and he did not move. Then after a very long pause he came back into consciousness gripping his briefcase. He pointed to the library, then not saying a word, turned around and scurried away from me. He seemed disturbed and upset. The cult members must sit in the Kingdom Hall with the watchtower magazine. Jehovah's Witnesses adore the watchtower magazine. The cult members read them vigorously and wait in expectation for the cult to print new ones (very soon). The watchtower society has a "Pyramid monument." It was consecrated to the cult. The nonsense that surrounds this is that it is Charles Taze Russell's grave. That is a lie. I have seen the actual grave of C.T. Russell.

It must be understood that some things in the world are so amazingly unknown, and there are many great secrets. Such things are well guarded so all clues must be considered. There are structures in the world shredding documents. There are compartments within compartments. Jehovah's Witnesses are a cult. Many of these cult members are people of hate and ignorance. Trying to reason with them would do no good. Especially, those who have been isolated and brainwashed with the cult propaganda. It damages the mind in so many ways even going to a metaphysical level. To get a Jehovah's Witness to look into their cult, it would be recommended to trick them. Tell them, that a web site has something to do against Christendom. Then they would go to it. If anything remotely negative is said about their cult, they are so hate filled, they would just walk away strutting and ignoring. Jehovah's Witnesses are actually a stereotyped race of people. This construct has actually created a whole mixed race of special people. Jehovah's Witnesses are very conditioned and share the same disorders. The generational cult versions are very brainwashed. Raised in this manner they are not allowed to wrestle, take self defense classes; practice fencing, grow a beard; and many other things. They are like a futuristic version of someone that was grown in a tube and set upon the world. Many years ago I once witnessed two Jehovah's Witness grandfathers who came over during cult recruiting. They saw some type of athlete stretching on television. One said, "Violence." the other said, "Violence." (then mumbled sounds that were slightly inaudible). They were in some type of light trance like state which is hard to describe. In the strangest robotic way they shifted their bodies at the same time and their heads shivered a bit, froze in a pause in unison; then turned their backs fully to the TV and immediately stated to talk gibberish very fast as if they were terrified. All of the mental illness disorders of these people are shared. Even the lies they tell are shared. There is no individual, they are all the same. There is no question this is a mind control cult and a Jehovah's Witness would not be able to put such a construct together.

Even though this book has proved the Jehovah's Witness cult to be an Illuminati front a person may still not be able to fully comprehend it as they should. There are different levels of understanding through vast populations; furthermore, if one is naturally wicked you must side with the same spirit. Jehovah Witnesses view themselves as wounded warriors and heroes. They actually believe that no one likes them, and everyone in the world is spreading lies about them. This is a delusion that exists in their minds. The world loves the Jehovah Witness. A cult like this that will let a child die refusing it a blood transfusion, and a cult like this that has broken up and destroyed countless families is beloved. I once observed a television talk show where someone stated something about the Jehovah Witnesses being in control if holidays were eliminated. A person immediately said in a snotty way (as to say it is a good thing), "What's wrong with being a Jehovah Witness?" Everyone basically said, "So what, nothing wrong with it at all." However, a main attack the cult comes under is from ignorant Christians. Many of this kind keep attacking Jehovah's Witnesses for not saluting a flag and participating in wars.

I have researched witchcraft and the occult planning to write books on such. I also wrote some science fiction which I never bothered to officially finish. I have come to the conclusion that it is good that I never finished. I believe most if not all are a part of some cabal that locks into occult constructs, and one has to be a part of something in order to advance. Some state Gene Roddenberry (Star Trek creator) was an elite Freemason. He was also a futurist and had dealings with NASA. The movie Westworld (release date 1973) was supposedly the first film to predict the computer virus. It is logical that constructs and think tanks with futurists are functioning with secret technology, electronics, and so forth. Many writers (if not all) merely related to these. Some sitting on boards in councils with the latter.

I never needed to continue just one field of research. After seeing much psychotic behavior from Jehovah's Witnesses the author began researching the cult. I began to research the Jehovah's Witness cult because of the extraordinarily bizarre behavior of cult members that I have seen (especially as a child). The strange behavior culminated many years later (I had no contact with Jehovah Witnesses for many years later). An event happened and will never be forgotten. The strange behavior culminated with an encounter with a Jehovah Witness called Hosea and his wife Dee. For a couple of months I had been trying to get them to answer a question regarding the Watchtower cult changing the 1914 (generation not passing) date. Which would mean they changed much of their history. After stalling for months trying to pretend to be my friend, Hosea finally answered the question. Simultaneously his wife went into a semi trance state and denied the date change (with very slow speech) in a robotic way, "Please don't listen to what people say, what people say, about us because people ... they ... they just don't know what they're talking about." While Hosea went into a semi trance state (he was frozen with a strange angry look) and said they changed it. As Hosea was frozen in a semi trance a strange smile came on him and did not leave his face as the eyes did not blink. He was grimacing and saying in a muffled odd way, "Yeah, ... we ... changed ... it ... Yes ... Yes ... Yes." Simultaneously as he was doing this Dee was speaking, "Please don't listen to what people say, what people say, about us because people ... they ... they just don't know what they're talking about." Hosea before this went into a total of 4 trance like states. The face froze and the body froze. There was no blinking and he stared for a period (once for about 5 seconds). I must say I have seen this strange behavior from many Jehovah's Witnesses. There is so-called family in the cult. The strange behavior that I have seen I actually started to write a book about but left the project. It would have been too big. I never joined this cult but they were heavily trying to con my mother into it when I was a child. Jehovah's Witnesses are notorious liars. What broke the spell on my mother was the lies. A Jehovah's Witness would say all who are not Jehovah's Witnesses need to be killed by God at Armageddon. Then lying saying they do not believe that. They did the same thing to me. A Jehovah's Witness elder called Charlie Smith told me God would not kill the natives of the wilderness. Then when I sat in on a cult recruiting session he had with my mother, he was talking about the need for Catholics to be killed because if they were brought into the new system, they would be a threat to the Jehovah's Witnesses. I was shocked and told him of our previous conversation when he stated certain people would be saved and not killed for not being a Jehovah Witness. He then lied and said he never said that.

My mother's sister (a Jehovah's Witness) stated her two sons would be killed by Jehovah (because they left the society). She then began crying and weeping. She told this to my mother many years ago. After that event my mother's sister came up very close to me whispering. Why come up to someone very close and whisper when no one is around? this has occurred often and is not normal. This person then stated that she tries to talk to my mother (about her cult) and my mother starts yelling at her and saying, "You think I am going to be killed for not being a Jehovah Witness!" My mother's sister then told me that she has to calm her down and say,

"NO, I DO NOT THINK YOU ARE GOING TO DIE."

She lied to me. Why would she lie about that? This lying seems to be some type of spiritual disease that many Jehovah's Witnesses have. No one is perfect but this is sickening. I have seen this person go into what looks like states of suspended animation. To sum up that family I would describe them as cold-blooded and inhuman.

This worldly structure that a Jehovah's Witness would call "Satan's world" has "Economic Warfare" and "Psychological Warfare." The Jehovah's Witness (Watchtower Society) cult has something they call "Theocratic Warfare." The Watchtower Society teaches Jehovah's Witnesses they can lie to people. I believe some of the lying they do is on some subliminal level, and sometimes they know full well what they are doing. Jehovah's Witnesses are the Watchtower Society. The society produces Watchtower and Awake! (with an exclamation point) magazines. The Jehovah's Witnesses are a worldly protestant printing religion where cult members are love bombed and guilted to cult recruit at people's doors until they die. It is cult doctrine that members must take the cult's magazines and knock on doors with them for their life span. The cult calls it, "field service." The cult brings in big money. Cult members are nothing but servants of the corporate business structure. The Jehovah's Witnesses are an Illuminati mind control cult. However one wishes to define the Illuminati can be various. Jehovah's Witnesses are not nor have they been in control. They should separate from their cult and stop funding it. They can keep their beliefs and stop being the globalist slaves that they are. The cult is some type of mind control project bringing very strange people together. Jehovah's Witnesses believe that they are preaching door to door because Jesus was a Jehovah's Witness and told them to (another cult lie). The door knocking cult recruitment accomplishes nothing. They mainly meet people who are ignorant as to what a cult is and then let cult recruiters into their home. Getting goofy men to shake each other's hands does not accomplish anything.

The allegations of subliminal images in Jehovah's Witness publications has happened many years ago (with no proof). A person once speculated that something was strange and was thrown out of the cult. When my website was launched it provided the proof. It closed the case. What was once speculated has now been proven.

Chapter 2

Discourse on Subliminals

Death and destructive learning (or) imagery may serve as mind manipulation, shutting down the consciousness and retarding an individual. Paraphrasing Subliminal Seduction death symbolism may be a tool to circumvent consciously discriminating perception. Much of what people believe to be subliminal images are not. One can naturally perceive images in clouds and see faces here and there. One may think they have one only to end up with mere half tones blended. Then a person may perceive a face. One may think they have one but do not. I once saw a video where someone claimed he found a subliminal image of a demon in a painting (not from a Jehovah's Witness material). I could tell it was a mistake and was not a subliminal image. Some can get carried away trying to disclose things when they should just remain silent. It is a tricky subject as one can also use the tactic of the natural odd phenomenon (supposed religious figure appearing in a piece of toast) and piggy back on that and glaze a subliminal to make it appear as though it is just an odd aspect of nature.

Anyone can think they see something when they do not. Let's say, a face in the clouds. Maybe ink smears on a paper and then something falls on it. Then one may say something looks like a face. The strongest evidence that is noted here is the sketched in patterns in relation to the supposed face fading in and out that one may think they see or imagine (face in clouds, etc.). You will note the sketched in and also the light glazing process of drawing or painting. In the beginning of Chapter 4 the main caption has a sketched in face. You can tell by looking that it was drawn in. Not a printing happenstance or some smear or half tones making a fading image that one may think to see.

Different theories for the use of subliminal images:

There are a variety of opinions on subliminal images. Why they are used and so forth. To explore this may be a dead end as it is logical there is advanced research and secret science. The full truth may never come out.

An explanation from an occult mindset: Cells of the body emit light. Light/information: information received = light received, effecting the human. Knowledge in the body effecting aspects of oneself. The body chemistry may effect the mind and will. The emotional state may be effected and perhaps one's health. Some may believe negative images can make one terrified or obedient. To bend the will in complex ways.

Some may feel that symbolism can be telepathic. Speech through pictures casting imagery from a space in the mind to another. Communicating images into the mind. Occultists may be using mind manipulating techniques on society or a form of pseudo science magic.

Death communication: from private secret research? Fear shock, emitting an energy field. Feeding an abnormal source and effecting the human. Putting one into a sad state (new age term, low vibrational state). Effecting the person making one obedient shutting down parts of the mind.

Scientific: to communicate with the so-called reptile brain. To supposedly disconnect the functions of the two parts of the brain so that people can be manipulated through the right brain while conscious of the left. It is said they can plant images into the right brain using symbolism and subliminal imagery. Telling the left brain how to interpret them. There are articles that have mentioned the latter, and the so-called reptilian brain.

Who knows the effect that these things have. Who knows the effect private research groups and corporations have in developing occult science (and a variety of other things).

Subliminal Seduction was a book written by a psychologist. It deals with subliminals in advertisements. It states the Calvert alcohol ad contains death and sex symbolism. With faces embedded, death imagery, and so on. It states it is certain the company Calvert has pretest data on their advertisements. The book suggests a congressional committee should request the data and the social effects of the ads. It is said there is research by the advertising industry investigating death symbolism, and the subliminal manipulability of man through it.

Many know nothing of the secret organizations that are about. Those who are said to expose some of them, may not understand, that the ones known about may not be all that there are. In cemeteries one will see (if they are aware) many masonic emblems on graves. Subliminals can serve many purposes. If an esoteric occultist were to see allot of V symbology, they would know what it is (the masses would not). It is logical that cult groups are secretly one (and other things as well). The ADL (previously known as the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith) has an effect on structures. Then there is the Tavistock Institute founded in 1946. They deal with so-called social sciences. They are said to have developed brainwashing techniques. To detail this one group would be too much to deal with. One should do independent research. If one thinks racial integration and other issues just happen they should consider what NGOs (Non-Governmental Organizations) or occult constructs may be behind these changes.

A secret has come out. Charles Taze Russell was evidently not the first president of the Watchtower Society. It was a steel tycoon and philanthropist, William Henry Conley (probably other secret backers with the official stories of how the cult was started being false). It is rumored the B'nai B'rith organization also helped to fund the Jehovah's Witness cult into being. While researching the occult I came across an essay written by a Satanist that stated the Rockefeller Foundation secretly funds the Jehovah's Witness cult. Rockefeller also funded the Tavistock Institute. One of the so-called, 13 bloodlines of the Illuminati, is said to be Rockefeller. Interesting that the company New World Records was founded with a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation, and the Jehovah's Witness cult's bible is titled, New World Translation. Religious structures are a part of the system bringing in money and pacifying the populace. Viewed as important for society they say that there are 7 million Jehovah's Witnesses. I do not believe that at all. I believe this is propaganda. I would estimate there are the same amount as in (around) the year 1993. Perhaps 3,500,000. Every Kingdom Hall (the cult's church) that I have been to as a child is now closed down and abandoned. I also know of one that has closed down as of the year 2006. It was looking new and spotless now it is closed down and vacant. The one that cult elder Charlie Smith went to is closed down as well. Many years ago cult elder Charlie Smith was transferred to another Kingdom Hall, and I have looked into it. It is closed down. The cult is in trouble. The cult has now recently revamped the holy magazines, the Watchtower and Awake! They cut them down to where they are now credit card thin. They have disrespected the slave labor of their predecessors and are encouraging cult members to read more parts online.

Awkward way to hold a jacket, the hand looks to be making "the horned hand sign." There is a "sideways S" above the right eye, just below the top part of the hair, just like in the other Awake! magazine; the S needs to be rotated counter-clockwise to see it as orthodox (view page 12).

The Key to a Happy World

"THE single most powerful figure—not merely in these two millennia but in all human history—has been Jesus of Nazareth," said Time magazine. When Jesus was on earth, thousands of honesthearted people recognized, not just his greatness, but his concern for others. Hence, it comes as no surprise that they wanted to make him king. (John 6:10, 14, 15) Yet, as mentioned in the preceding article, Jesus declined to get involved in politics.

JESUS' response was based on at least three factors: his Father's view of expressions of human self-determination, which in-authority over the animal kingdom. (Genesis 1:26) But humankind was under God's sovereignty. The first man and woman were to

Demon Hell Fantasy Imagery

Demonic rune symbols upon the forehead.

The middle demon is from Dungeons & Dragons Player's Handbook 3, Psionic, Divine, and Primal Heroes: "Chapter 2 Character Classes", page 112. The top of the page states, RunePriest Paragon Paths. Note the rune symbol on the forehead. The book states many runes have been lost over the centuries. Note the Jehovah's Witness figure to the right. The rune type symbols are similar to the demon to the left. The Jehovah's Witness figure to the right is on page 31. You can view the head caption without the highlighting. You may have to stare at the forehead for a while to see the runes/symbol. The first figure pictured is covered on page 27.

It is not just a matter of someone thinking they see a word pattern in a stock of wood or something in the sky. There is a consistency that must be understood. Forget about the half face sketched in on page 13 (fig.3). Aside from the non-demonic there is a demonic consistency.

Note the magic nails from the book below (Fig. 159) they appear to have symbols and runic writing.

Frederick Thomas Elworthy says in, The Evil Eye (1895):

"In Greek tombs nails have been found amongst other amulets used for the dead as well as for the living. In the present day it is sought by human wisdom to strengthen the power of these nails; hence a nail by which some one has been slain on the cross, or a nail from a shipwrecked vessel, has quite a special power ... Many of these nails had inscriptions and symbols of magic power engraved upon them, and once more we repeat that each added symbol was supposed to increase the collective power of the whole. Most of the separate symbols found on these nails have been already described as protectives against the evil eye--a fortiori, the nails were potent amulets."

Some magic is used for negative purposes. If the magic explanation is more dominant than subliminal, this makes the Jehovah's Witness cult's holy printed materials cursed objects (which they are anyway).

Hypnotism

Some have claimed to be victim of the Project MKUltra mind control program. There is a video game that is spelled Mortal Kombat (instead of the orthodox combat). It is called MK. The game series contains occult knowledge. MK 4 of the series seems as though it was purposely made to be overdone with horror. Almost developed by a demon himself. The video game chipset-information is Midway Zeus Hardware. Note the strange depiction of hell and the yin yang symbol. Is the yin yang symbol a subliminal disguise for a hypnosis spiral? Note the hellish demon skull above the yin yang symbol (near the upper right corner).

Hypnosis spiral

The right cheek is made bulbous of a sort. Rotating the head what looks like a 6 or swirl is inside. Six can be an occult numeric (666). The spiral also can form a 6. The spiral is also a goddess symbol in paganism. The spiral is used in hypnosis. Most have seen imagery of people or cartoon characters being hypnotized by staring into a spinning spiral. Note the man is not looking upward which would be a natural depiction for the position that he is in. Why is he not looking upward? It may be because it would hide the hypnosis spiral. Another reason is revealed on the next page.

The man has an angry face on his right hand. Notice he is frightened and looking away from the face as it is striving at him. It looks as though it could be a, trick of the mind, or the proverbial face in the clouds that one could imagine. The face can perhaps be imagined or something akin to the astral realm. I do not believe that's what it is because of the consistent theme (reference bottom page).

This one simple image appears to be a mass of hypnosis and subliminal imagery.

A Wikipedia article states on MK ULTRA:

"A precursor of the MKUltra program began in 1945 when the Joint Intelligence Objectives Agency was established and given direct responsibility for Operation Paperclip. The program recruited former Nazi scientists, some of whom studied torture and brainwashing ...Declassified MKUltra documents indicate hypnosis was studied in the early 1950s. Experimental goals included: the creation of "hypnotically induced anxieties,..."

WE SEE WHAT LOOKS LIKE A 6 IN THE CENTER, AND THREE PYRAMIDS OR TRIANGLES

One can see concentric circles all over society. Also, the logos of many companies resemble something that looks like a ring of Saturn. Furthermore, there is the child's sucker with its swirls. Is it a coincidence? There is something called spinning tortures. It is claimed to be used by Illuminati programmers. It has been said it is for creating alternate personalities. It is said (that supposedly) viewing spinning tables or other contraptions can have an effect on the mind controlled slave or victim of trauma based mind control. There may also be internal studies to show different effects that have not been theorized by the mainstream or disclosed. Not to mention a conglomerate versed in such principles or a front operation (the system, etc.) could just be using what they know and such being reflected in culture. Our society a reflection of those who are a part of the network in some instances. Or perhaps not. One thing is certain. The Jehovah's Witnesses have been exposed.
